

Social and Personal.

THE engagement of Miss Alma Miller Cecil, of 512 Park Avenue, to Lucius Faircland Cary, son of Colonel and Mrs. W. Miles Cary, has been announced. The ceremony will be held at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Russell Cecil, and the wedding, which will be celebrated on January 19, will be one of the most brilliant social events of the winter.

Mrs. Hunt's Tea.
Mrs. Albert F. Hunt, of 1003 West Avenue, was hostess at a very charming tea on Wednesday afternoon between the hours of 4 and 6. The color scheme was green and yellow, and the parlor, where the receiving party stood, was effectively decorated in vases of white chrysanthemums and garlands of smilax. Mrs. Hunt, wearing a handsome gown of champagne-colored chiffon cloth, with a corsage bouquet of orchids, was assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. Walter F. Deal, of Emporia, who wore a black satin gown embroidered in gold.

In the dining-room a bowl of yellow chrysanthemums ornamented the table, and the punch bowl was wreathed in smilax and tied with yellow tulle. Yellow shaded candles on the mantels further decorated the room. Mrs. Edgar Lafferty and Mrs. Dallan Barksdale presided at the punch bowl, and Mrs. F. E. Stacy and Miss Anton H. Thiermann poured tea. Those who served in the dining-room were Miss Virginia Tyler, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Clothier and Mrs. Selden.

In Honor of Miss Kelly.
Mrs. Kelly has issued invitations to a reception to be given next Tuesday at her home in Norfolk in honor of Mrs. W. Lane Kelly, Jr., and Miss Bessie Kelly. Miss Kelly is one of the most popular debutantes who has been presented to Norfolk society this season, and has been entertained a great deal.

Miss Kelly was the house guest of Miss Helen Gray Watson this week, and was in the receiving line at the latter's cotillion Tuesday night.

Hunting Last Week.
Blair Bolling, Henry Grant, of Richmond, and Randolph Carrington, of Lynchburg, spent last week as the guests of relatives in Charlotte county, where they enjoyed the sports of the field.

Bridal Party Entertained.

A very enjoyable reception was given by Mrs. Edwin Michael at her home in Roanoke Tuesday evening, to Miss Vera Adams and her bridal party, following their rehearsal at the First Presbyterian Church. Miss Adams was wedded to Mr. Epps, of Greenville, S. C., Wednesday. The rooms were tastefully decorated in colors, the parlors in orange and white, the library in

Lord, Speak Again

BY ELLA-WHEELER WILCOX

When God had formed the Universe, He thought of all the marvels therein to be wrought. And He said then Motherhood was brought.

"My lesser self, the feminine of Me, She will go forth throughout all time," quoth He. "And make my world what I would have it be."

"For I am weary, having labored so. And for a while of repose would go into that silence which but God may know."

"Therefore I leave the rounding of my plan To Motherhood; and that which I began Let woman finish in perfecting man."

"She is the soil; the human Mother Earth; She is the sun, that calls the seed to earth. She is the gardener, who knows its worth."

"From Me all seed of any kind must spring. Divine the growth each seed and soil will bring. For all is Me and I am everything."

Thus having spoken to Himself aloud, His glorious face upon His breast He bowed, And sought repose behind a wall of cloud.

Come forth, O God! Though great Thy thought and goal, and grand Thy plan, In shaping woman for true Motherhood, Lord, speak again; she has not understood.

The centuries pass; the cycles roll along— The earth is peopled with a mighty throng. Yet men are fighting and the world goes wrong.

Lord, speak again, ere yet it be too late! Unloved, unwanted souls come through earth's gate— The unborn child is given a dower of hate.

The world progresses in all ways save one: In Motherhood, for which it was begun. Lord, Lord, behold how little has been done!

Children are spawned like fishes in the sand. With ignorance and crimes they fill the land. Lord, speak again, till mothers understand.

It is not all of Motherhood to know Conception pleases or delivers was. Who plants the seed should help the shoot to grow.

True Motherhood is not alone to breed The human race; it is to know and heed Its holiest purpose and its highest need.

Lord, speak again, so woman shall be stirred With the full meaning of that mighty word. True Motherhood. She has not rightly heard.

"TEX" RICKARD LANDS BIG BRUISERS' MILL

Jeffries-Johnson Fight Will Represent More Money Than Any Bout in History of Pugilism.

NEW YORK, December 2.—The fight for the heavyweight championship of the world between James J. Jeffries and John Johnson will be held in California, in the vicinity of San Francisco, on July 4, 1910, and will be staged by "Tex" Rickard, of Nevada, and John J. Gleason, of San Francisco. Their bid of $101,000 and two-thirds of the moving picture privileges to the contestants was formally accepted during a stormy meeting at Hoboken, New Jersey, late to-day. It is believed the fight will represent more cash than any other fight in the history of the prize ring.

Thomas J. McCarey, of Los Angeles, whose bid was considered highest by many, made a game race for his Pacific Athletic Club, but his cause was without hope. James Coffroth, by virtue of his control of the two basic patents on moving pictures, had decreed against McCarey, and his ally, "Eddie" Graney, of San Francisco, and the fight was given to Gleason and Rickard, who, it is conceded by sporting men, have an understanding with Coffroth—a fact that Gleason and Coffroth have shared one bid in the past. McCarey and Graney estimate that the net value of the moving pictures will amount to at least $200,000, and may be worth $400,000.

After Lou Housman, of Chicago, as master of ceremonies, had called the meeting to order in a hotel at Hoboken, Sam Berger, Jeffries' manager, announced that his principal had decided for Rickard and Gleason. George Little, representing Johnson, made a similar announcement, and Stakeholder Bob Murphy was about to declare the matter settled when McCarey rose to insist on reading the Rickard bid in an effort to show that it was not the best.

"I was induced to come across the continent," protested McCarey, "by the representation that everything was to be above board. I find it otherwise. If my bid is not the best, then Eddie Graney's is. Graney's bid amounts, including pictures, to $275,000 to the fighters."

"Well, I've been in this fight business longer than you have," spoke up Gleason, "and was about to continue when McCarey jumped to his feet and hurled his wallet across the long table, crying:

"There's at least $250 that you have not."

"But I've had bigger fights," persisted Gleason.

"I'll bet my pills you haven't," shouted McCarey.

Lou Housman quieted the argument, but there was more wrangling before Berger announced decisively that Jeffries would not change his verdict. Little made a similar announcement for Johnson, and Stakeholder Murphy declared the award to Rickard and Gleason. At Gleason's suggestion the final signing of the articles at Hoboken was postponed until to-morrow at 11 o'clock, when lawyers will clinch the last technicalities.

General sympathy was expressed for McCarey. He had prejudiced his rather delicate health by a cross-continent trip in expectation of getting the fight. Rickard assured him as a sop to his chagrin, that a special ring-side box should be built for him and his friends.

The guaranteed purse for this fight is the largest ever offered, but sporting men believe the moving pictures will net even more.

John L. Sullivan was mentioned in gossip to-day as a possible referee. No one believes that he will be selected as referee. His age and bulk are his only handicaps, but they are sufficient. The referee may be chosen to-morrow when the final articles are signed.
